SCIENCE FESTIVAL

Going Global

My trip to the National Museum of Scotland for the Edinburgh
Science Festival

Tower Entrance

My name is _____

Today I am visiting Science Festival Favourites at the National Museum of Scotland

I will go to the festival at:

I will come to the festival by...

Bus

Bike

Car

Taxi

Train

Walking

Tram

Scooter

Hoverboard

When I arrive at the National Museum of Scotland I will see...

The Tower entrance

When I go inside I will see

An Information Desk with Visitor Experience Assistants

I will see lots of people who will be very excited, it might be a bit noisy. I can ask the box office desk for a sensory backpack if i need it.

My sensory backpack includes lots of items such as:

Ear Defenders

Torches

Sunglasses

Fidget Toys

To reach the Grand Gallery from the Tower Entrance I walk up a ramp.

I will pass a museum shop.

I will then enter Hawthornden Court

I will enter the Grand Gallery

Sometimes it can be busy. People might be talking.

I can find accessible toilets on every level and a Changing Places (U) toilet in the Entrance Hall on Level 0.

The hand dryers are very loud.

If I need a break or want to ask for directions I can talk to someone who works at the museum.

They wear uniforms that look like this:

If I want to rest, there are seats in the museum or I can borrow a black stool to take around with me.

If I am hungry I can buy food at the Balcony Café on Level 3, the Hawthornden Café on Level 1 or the Museum Kitchen on Level 0.

Museum Kitchen on Level 0

Hawthornden Court Café on Level 1

Balcony Café on Level 3

Or I might be able to eat my own snack or lunch in the lunch room on Level 0 at the Entrance Hall.

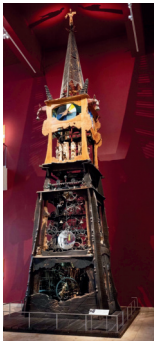

Lunch Space is open from 10am to 5pm

I can ask member of the Visitor Experience team if the space is available.

To reach the Learning Centre on Level 2 or 4, I will walk past the Millennium Clock on Level 1.

The clock goes off every hour. It can be quite noisy.

The Millennium Clock

I will walk to the back of the room and find the stairs or the lift to the Learning Centre.

Stairs to Level 2 or 4

Lift to Level 2 or 4

When I arrive to level 2 or 4 a Science Communicator or front of house staff will show me the way.

Today I am going to a fun workshop.
The Workshop that I am going to do is...

I am excited to learn about...

If I need to go to the bathroom I can find them on level 2 and 4 near the Learning Studios.

There is a wheelchair accessible toilet on the ground floor.

When I have finished my day at the Edinburgh Science Festival I can...

Tell my friends about an exciting fact I learnt!

Learn even more about my favourite workshop
